Max Life Group Super Life Premier

In all sectors of the economy, whether organized or unorganized, employees of an organization are its most critical and important asset. However, creating a motivated workforce with healthy retention rates is a key challenge an organization usually faces.

Employers across the world strive to secure and insure benefits for their employees.

We, at Max Life Insurance Company, understand your priorities and challenges. Towards this end, we have prepared a flexible Group term insurance plan – Max Life Group Super Life Premier to safeguard the future of your employees' families against death.

Group life insurance is a life insurance scheme in which a single contract covers an entire group of people. Typically, in such schemes, the life insurance scheme owner is the employer or other registered groups as applicable. Group life insurance is often provided as part of a complete employee benefits package. As a single Policy is issued covering all members and in view of simplified procedures in risk assessment, the cost of group coverage is far less than what you would pay for a similar amount of individual protection.

- (2) A policy of life insurance may be called in question at any time within three years from the date of issuance of the policy or the date of commencement of risk or the date of revival of the policy or the date of the rider to the policy, whichever is later, on the ground of fraud:

Provided that the insurer shall have to communicate in writing to the insured or the legal representatives or nominees of the insured the grounds and materials on which such decisions are based.

- c) any other act fitted to deceive; and
- d) any such act or omission as the law specially declares to be fraudulent.

Explanation II – Mere silence as to facts likely to affect the assessment of the risk by the insurer is not fraud, unless the circumstances of the case are such that regard being had to them, it is the duty of the insured or his agent, keeping silence to speak, or unless his silence is, in itself, equivalent to speak.

- (3) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (2) no insurer shall repudiate a life insurance policy on the ground of fraud if the insured can prove that the mis-statement of or suppression of a material fact was true to the best of his knowledge and belief or that such mis-statement of or suppression of a material fact are within the knowledge of the insurer:

Explanation – For the purposes of this sub-section, the mis-statement of or suppression of fact shall not be considered material unless it has a direct bearing on the risk undertaken by the insurer, the onus is on the insurer to show that had the insurer been aware of the said fact no life insurance policy would have been issued to the insured.

- (5) Nothing in this section shall prevent the insurer from calling for proof of age at any time if he is entitled to do so, and no policy shall be deemed to be called in question merely because the terms of the policy are adjusted on subsequent proof that the age of the life insured was incorrectly stated in the proposal.
